

About the Authors

Paul and Pam Hainline are students of God's Word who write from the conviction that Scripture interprets Scripture. Their work is rooted in a desire to point readers back to the biblical text — not to opinions, traditions, or denominational systems. They are the founders of NobleMind Press (noblemind.study).

Nobody told you this was coming.

You are standing at the beginning of your adult life in a world that offers everything except the truth you actually need.

This book is built on the Bible — not on opinions, not on trends, not on what sounds good at graduation.

It is a straight-talk guide through the questions that will define your life: who you are, who God is, how you treat people, and how you build something that lasts.

Fourteen chapters. One Foundation.

“Choose for yourselves today whom you will serve . . .
but as for me and my house,
we will serve the Lord.”

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.”

PROVERBS 9:10

Your Name Means Everything: A Good Name is a straight-talk guide for young men navigating the years that will shape the rest of their lives.

In fourteen chapters anchored entirely in Scripture, Paul and Pam Hainline address the questions no one else is answering honestly: identity, integrity, purity, friendship, money, marriage, and what it means to build a life on the only foundation that lasts.

This is not a book of opinions. It is a book of Scripture — letting God's Word speak for itself to a generation that has rarely heard it.
