

About the Authors

Paul Hainline writes using the Berean approach of examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things are so (Acts 17:11), and letting Scripture interpret Scripture.

He is the author of multiple books on Bible study, evangelism, and Christian living, including A New and Living Way, From the Beginning, Change the Mind Change the Man, The Character No One Could Invent, Why Do You Delay, Bridge Moments, The Last Week of the Lamb, and Can These Bones Live?

He co-authored The God Who Showed Up with his wife Pam, and they write together for teen readers in Your Name Means Everything: A Good Name and Strength and Dignity.

NobleMind Press
noblemind.study

*“God said to Moses, ‘I AM WHO I AM’;
and He said, ‘Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel, I AM has sent me to you.’”*

— Exodus 3:14

God did not just send His word into history. He showed up — by name.

He met Hagar in the wilderness and let her name Him El Roi, the God Who Sees. He told Abraham He was El Shaddai. He gave Moses a personal name from a burning bush. He provided on Mount Moriah, healed at Marah, gave peace at the threshing floor, shepherded His people in Psalm 23, and finally came in person as Immanuel — God With Us.

Twelve chapters, twelve names. Each one is a moment when God stepped into the story and let a specific human being know exactly who He is. Together, they form a portrait — not of an idea, but of the living God who keeps showing up.

If you have ever wished you could meet Him for yourself, this book is the introduction.

Scripture quotations from the New American Standard Bible® (NASB).

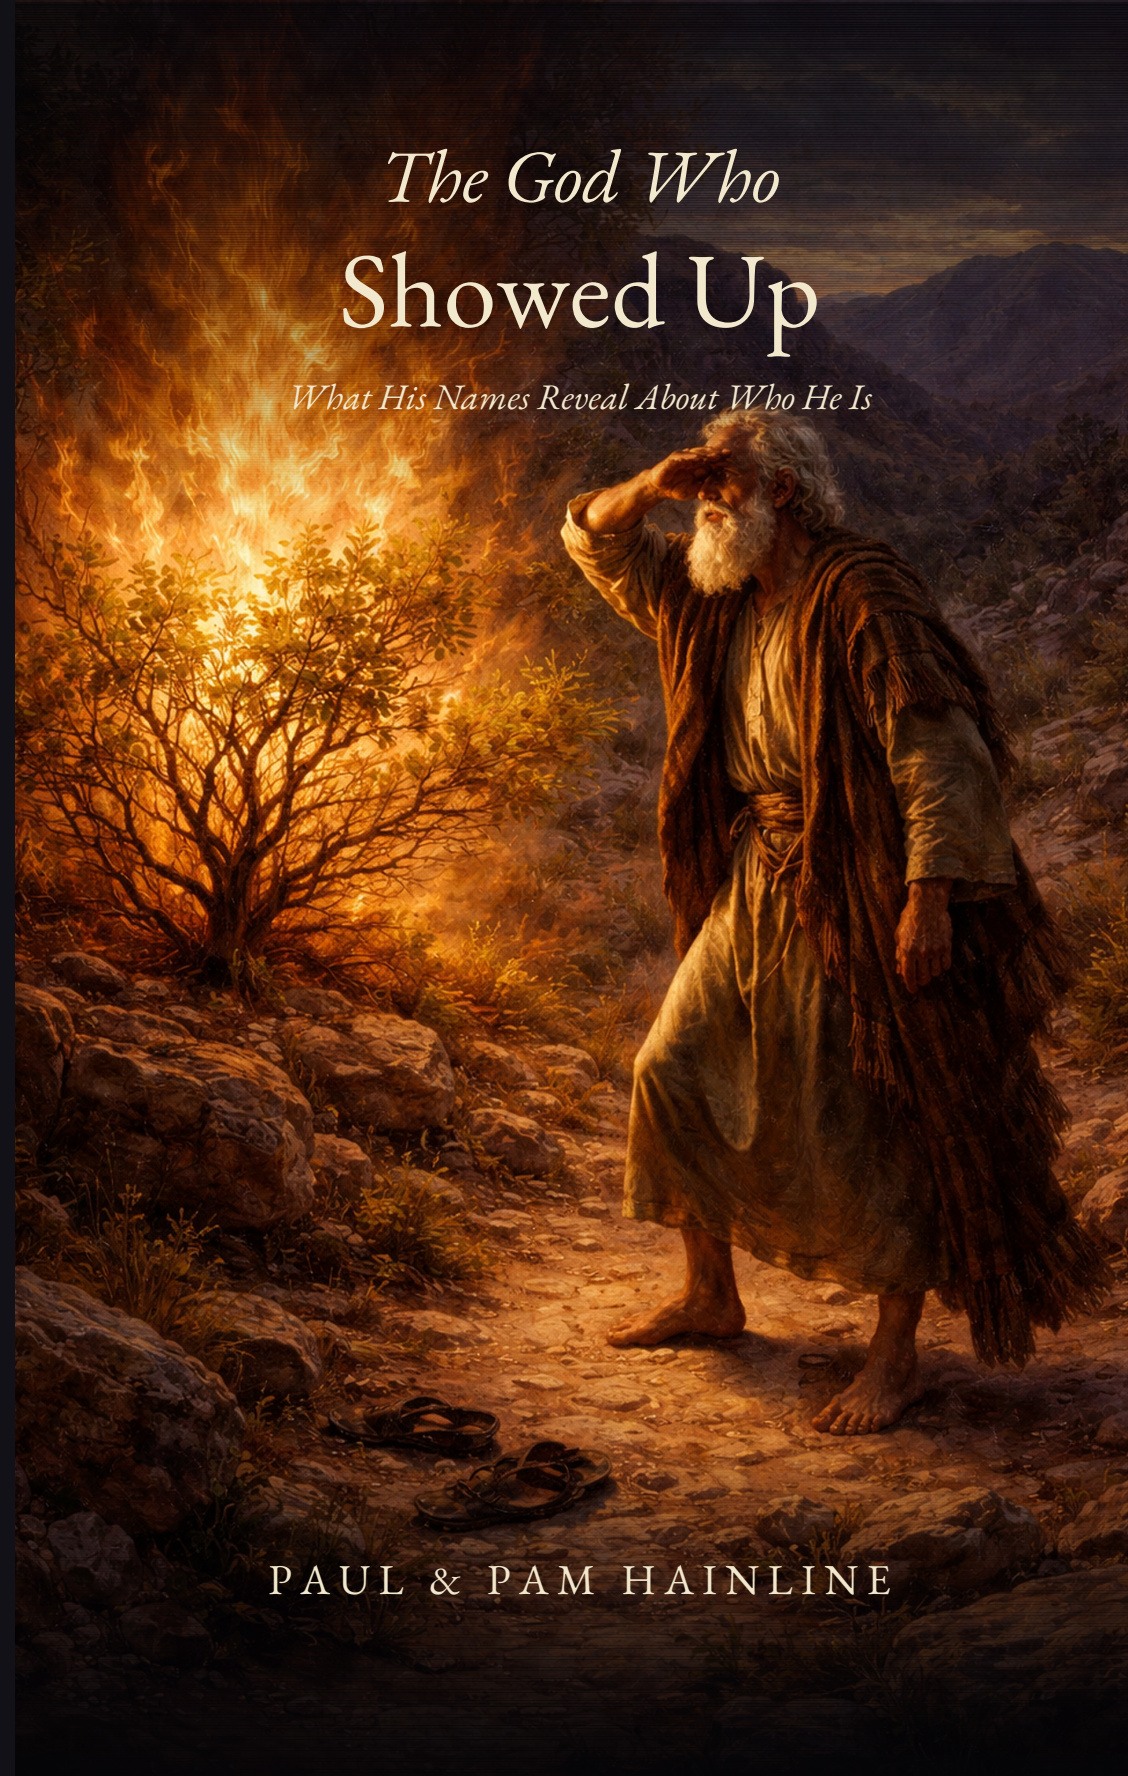

NobleMind Press
noblemind.study

The God Who Showed Up

Paul & Pam Hainline

The God Who Showed Up

What His Names Reveal About Who He Is

PAUL & PAM HAINLINE

A name was never just a label. In Scripture it was a revelation.

And the God of the Bible kept giving Himself new ones — each one tied to a moment when a human being needed to know that particular truth about Him.

“I AM WHO I AM.”
— Exodus 3:14

Hagar called Him El Roi from the desert. Abraham learned He was El Shaddai before the covenant. Moses heard YAHWEH from a burning bush. Gideon found Him as Jehovah Shalom under an oak tree. David sang of Him as Jehovah Rohi.

And then, in Matthew 1, a child was born and an angel told Joseph exactly what to call Him: Immanuel — God With Us.

Twelve chapters, twelve names, walking through the Bible in the order God revealed them. Every name drawn directly from the text.

Each one is a moment when God showed up. Together they form a portrait of the living God.